The new website is currently in use. As is often the case, there are bound to be small glitches with the way it works. We are appealing to users who observe any such challenges to draw the Secretariat's attention to them. These will be attended to as soon as possible. The new website has a facility for registering members. To date only 331 people have made use of this facility. This is not good enough. Every year, Akoras complain about the absence of a good database that they can use for various purposes, especially making contact with fellow Akoras. We are therefore appealing to all Akoras to help us establish a solid database by registering on the website. We can assure you that whatever data you choose to provide will be protected by law and not be misused. All Year Groups are encouraged to make their presence felt in this regard. Akora Rosemary Schipper (Richardson) (1974) was the first person to register. Thank you , Akora Rosemary!

Kindly send write-ups, photos and video clips of all your past events, activities and projects to info@oldachimotan.org
