GENERAL TRIBUTE TO DEPARTED AKORAS 2022

It is my painful duty today to stand before you and pay tribute to members of our family who passed away in the course of the year since the 2021 Memorial Service.

Since that time, by known count, we have lost 80 Akoras; 2 students; 12 teachers (including non-Akoras) and 2 non-teaching members of staff.

Traditionally, 2nd November is known on the Christian calendars as All Souls Day, a day set aside to remember our loved ones and pray for their continued peaceful repose. It is therefore customary that on this day in November the Old Achimotan Association also honours departed Akoras, students and members of staff who passed away from October of the ensuing year to October the following year and who have since been buried.

Compiling the list of departed Akoras and putting together the brochure for the service has been a very emotional task. A task that makes us take a step back and appreciate who we had ... and lost. Editing their biographies or simply reading them made us feel their loss keenly especially because they were our brothers and sisters ... born of this Mother - Our School.

No matter how old or young they were we felt the vacuum created by their passing. The age range of the departed varies from year to year, sometimes the ancient Akoras are in the majority and sometimes the millennials or not so millennials are in the majority. It is never an exact science. But regardless of how old or young they were, their loss has left a painful vacuum for all of us Akoras ... but even more for their immediate families.

Today is also the day that in thinking about the saints triumphant (those who have gone before us) and how they impacted the lives of the saints militant, (those of us on earth), we take stock of our own lives and try and to leave a positive mark before we are called up yonder.

Never have we had so many teachers or judges passing away in a year. Twelve teachers and three judges. At the time of their passing, one of the teachers was still in service but all the judges were retired. Among the judges was Akora Justice Seth Twum.

He was very knowledgeable in land matters and had a good counsel for us during our protracted legal land cases. He was also a keynote speaker at one of the Achimota Speaks events during our 90th Anniversary Celebrations.

He and several doctors and nursing officers and a midwife have also made their exit after serving humanity well.

Two naval officers and a pilot have joined the heavenly stars along with a couple of engineers. Akora Nat Nuno-Amarteifio, an architect who later turned Chief Executive of Accra Metropolitan Assembly and the defacto Mayor of Accra also passed on during this period. He was working on publishing some interesting work on Accra's architecture at the time of his passing.

The music scene will miss Akora Kojo Sam Essah's crooning even though he was a bank manager by day. We lost two more bank managers.

Two caterers who are now on high, Akoras Novisi Ruth Haizel nee Chapman-Nyaho and Elaine Kuukua Dei-Anang nee Baksmaty whipped up assorted finger-licking delicacies in their time and will be solely missed.

As true living waters to a thirsty land, some of the Akoras we mourn today turned their health challenges into mini crusaders on social media and other fora or wrote books to ensure that all others may learn and be better positioned to fight such challenges. Akora Doris Appiah-Danquah, Akora Susan Chinery, nee Quartey, Akora Christian Kofi Mamattah (a poultry farmer) and Akora Ivy Barbara Arthur come readily to mind.

Two earthly unrelated twins Akora Gladys Akwele Otoo and Akora Helena Akuorkor Quist-Therson, midwife and social worker respectively are now heavenly twins.

We were stunned only a few days ago to hear of the passing of Akora Seth Dei. Akora Seth was a successful businessman and art enthusiast who supported the Achimota School Endowment Trust Fund, housed its office and hosted its meetings for close to a decade. His contributions to the OAA and Achimota School are written in gold. Akora Seth will be interred on Thursday.

On all these counts, our loss has been Heaven's gain. We will never understand why certain things happen or specifically why our loved ones die, but the GOOD LORD knows best. Young and old; great and yet to be great ... they all played their God-given roles on this stage we call "The World" and will be sorely missed.

Once again, on behalf of the Old Achimotan Association, I convey to Akoras, Families and Friends, our heartfelt condolences.

May the souls of our dear Akoras, Staff and Students rest in perfect

1. Now thank we all our God

With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love
And still is our today.

3. All praise and thanks to God

The Father now be given,
The Son and Spirit blest,
Who reign in highest heaven
The one eternal God,
Whom heaven and earth adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

2. O may this bounteous God

Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
To keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
Of this world in the next.

From Gambaga to Accra,
from Wiawso to Keta, We are brothers and our mother is our school.
She will guide us all and each,
so to learn that we may teach.
So to subjugate ourselves that we may rule.

Chorus:

Play the game, shout her name!
Spread her fame afar.
She's the head of all the host,
She's the school of whom we boast.
She is the glory of the coast,
ACHIMOTA!

When our books are laid aside and we scatter far and wide.
We remember with affection all we gained.
How we learned to take our share in the life and labour there.
Where the men of whom we are proudest of were trained.

Chorus:

Play the game, shout her name!
Spread her fame afar.
She's the head of all the host,
She's the school of whom we boast.
She is the glory of the coast,
ACHIMOTA!

1 Now praise we great and famous men,

The fathers named in story;
And praise the Lord who now as then Reveals in man His glory.

2 Praise we the wise and brave and strong,

Who graced their generation;
Who helped the right, and fought the wrong,
And made our folk a nation.

3 Praise we the great of heart and mind,

The singers sweetly gifted,
Whose music like a mighty wind
The souls of men uplifted.

4 Praise we the peaceful men of skill

Who builded homes of beauty,
And, rich in art, made richer still
The brotherhood of duty.

5 So praise we great and famous
men,

The fathers, named in story;
And praise the Lord who now as then Reveals in man His glory.

1. Begone unbelief, My Savior is near,
And for my relief Will surely appear:
By faith let me wrestle, with God in the storm
And help me my Savior, the faith to adorn
And help me my Savior, the faith to adorn

2. Though dark be my way, Since he is my guide,
'Tis mine to obey, and His to provide;
Though cisterns be broken, And
creatures all fail,
The word he has spoken will surely prevail.
The word he has spoken will surely
prevail.

3. Begone unbelief, The Savior is here
Begone unbelief, The Savior is here
Begone unbelief, The Savior is here
Though cisterns be broken And
creatures all fail
The word he has spoken will surely
prevail
The word he has spoken will surely
prevail

4. Why should I complain, Of want or distress Temptation or pain? He told me no less
The heirs of salvation, I know from his word Through much tribulation Must follow their Lord
Through much tribulation Must
follow their Lord

1. I'll praise my maker while I've breath,
and when my voice is lost in death, praise shall possess my noblest powers;
my days of praise are never past while life and thought and being last or immortality endures.

2. Happy are those whose hopes rely on God the Lord, who made the sky, the earth, the sea, the night and day;
his truth forever stands secure,
he keeps his promise to the poor, and none who seeks is turned away.

3. The Lord gives eyesight to the blind, he calms and heals the troubled
mind,
he sends the wounded conscience peace;
he helps the stranger in distress,
the widow and the fatherless, and grants the prisoner glad release.

4. I'll praise him while he lends me
breath,
and when my voice is lost in death praise shall employ my noblest
powers;
my days of praise are never past while life and thought and being last or immortality endures.

ASH 362 SCHOOL HYMN

Grey City of the Outlaws' Hill
Grey city of the outlaws hill, Quick with the hope which makes sublime Still in Thy youth, thou dare'st to look Far on the centuries of time.

Born but to rule through service given,
The ages all belong to Thee,
O may Thy life more humble grow Through Him whose service makes us free.

He who wept o'er Jerusalem,
And yearned to turn the chastening rod,
Long in His steadfast love to build
In Thee a city for our God.

Then shall Thy sons and daughters, say
As back to Thee they look with joy, Praise God who gave us there to share,
The freedom of his grand employ

Well springs of wisdom are in Thee;
With harvests rich Thy hillsides sing;
Thou givest life, so mayest Thou be
For aye a City of our King.

Though set upon a desert hill,
May living waters rise in Thee;
And from Thy children wider flow
The rivers of eternity.
